This letter is to confirm the arrangements with respect to the services you have requested.

Return Preparation

We will prepare your Federal and state (if required) income tax return(s) for 2016. In preparing these return(s), we will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where the tax law is unclear or where there are conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretation of the law and what seem to be other supportable positions. We will also be available, upon request, to consult with you with respect to tax planning, accounting and other related matters.

Return Responsibilities

We will rely on the information you provide to us to prepare your tax return(s). We will not verify the information. We are not responsible for inaccurate information provided by you. The Internal Revenue Service may select your income tax return for examination as part of their normal selection process or as a result of a position which was taken in preparing your return. In the event of an audit, you will be required to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on your returns. We are not responsible for disallowed deductions, the inclusion of additional unreported income, or any resulting taxes, penalties and or interest. If an examination occurs, Frost Dana Newman, LLP will represent you if you so desire. These additional services are not included in our fee for the preparation of your tax return. Additional fees for our representation will be billed under a separate engagement agreement.

In recent years the IRS has increased the number and frequency of income tax notices. If you receive a notice and need assistance in dealing with it, please contact us. This is not included in our fee for the preparation of your tax return. We will bill you, at our standard hourly rates.

Fees and Billings

Our fees for these services will be based on the actual time spent at our current fee schedule plus travel and other out-of-pocket costs. Our invoices are payable upon presentation.
